Do you love to read before bed? This year we are challenging the students and families of BPS to join us for a Book Before Bedtime reading marathon in the senior building. We are going to see if we can read more than 100 books in one hour.

We will have picture story books, short chapters, and a wide range of books to choose from. However if you have a special book you would like to bring along to share please do so.

We will also be providing supper and a warm milo to enjoy while you read.

So pop on your PJs, bring your teddies, a soft blanket or pillow and come and join us to read the night away.
